Department of English

Executive Summary

The Department of English, Khushal Khan Khattak University Karak, was established in July 2015. Currently, the department offers BS in English (Language and Literature) four years program, and M. Phil in English Literature. The scheme of studies for BS in English is in accordance with HEC Undergraduate Policy 2023 from Semester Fall 2023. This scheme of studies has been adapted in the 7th Board of Studies meeting held on November 14, 2023. The department envisions developing and enhancing the students' analytical skills, aesthetic sense and understanding of humanity through appreciation of relevant works in the fields of literature and linguistics. The Department seeks to foster academic research and appreciation of literary and linguistic studies through a diversified curriculum. The curriculum is designed to nurture a variety of critical, pedagogical, theoretical and analytical skills. The first batch of BS in English graduated in 2019 and alumni are working in different educational institutions and pursuing higher degrees in the fields of English language and literature.

The Department is working for the improvement of students learning and giving the faculty an encouraging working & learning environment. In the area of faculty development, the department has supported its faculty members for higher education. Currently, three faculty members are enrolled in the Ph.D. program. The department has organized many workshops and seminars in Semester Spring 2024 & Fall 2024 to nurture students' thirst for knowledge and polish their critical thinking. The department also encourages students to participate in co-curricular activities to help them groom an overall personality.

This self-assessment report was initiated by Directorate of Quality Assurance, Khushal Khan Khattak University Karak. Program team members were formed from all the departments consisting of three members. The Directorate of Quality Assurance then offered online surveys for Teacher Evaluation by students, Course Evaluation by students, Faculty Survey, Graduating Students Survey, Alumni Survey, and Employer Survey. The program team members visited all the classes to encourage students to evaluate teachers and courses through online surveys. After the completion of online surveys, the data was sent in excel sheet by the Directorate of Quality Assurance to the department for analysis. Program team members analyzed the data and the results are presented in graphs form in this report. Results of the online survey show that students of the department are satisfied with their courses and teachers.

CRITERION 1 PROGRAM MISSION, OBJECTIVES AND OUTCOMES

Department of English:

The Department of English, Khushal Khan Khattak University Karak, was established in 2015 with the mission to facilitate students to develop critical thinking and understanding of literary and linguistic studies. CRITERION 3

LABORATORIES AND COMPUTING FACILITIES

BS in English is a humanities subject and laboratories are not needed except for library and computer lab. Apart from access to the Central Library of the University, the Department of English has established its own mini departmental library which caters the needs of students to issue different books on wide range of subjects. Though there is no separate Computer Lab in the department, but the students of BS English have access to Computer Lab of the Department of Computer Science. The department has ten laptops for the use of students which are issued to the students for their research purposes. The Department of English aims to establish Language Laboratory in the department in near future.

The department has a mini library where books and laptops are issued to the students. However, the department is not provided with any librarian/assistant/attendant for the library.

CRITERION 4

STUDENTS SUPPORT & ADVISING

The students are provided full support to complete the program in time. The faculty members are available during office hours and students are encouraged to consult them in case they have any problem. Students are fully supported and advised in academic and extra-curricular activities by the faculty members of the department.

Standard 4.1: Courses must be offered with sufficient frequency and number for students to complete the program in a timely manner.

The courses are offered regularly as per schedule. The degree consists of total eight semesters (two semesters per year plus summer semester). The department offers core courses in first six semesters of BS program; while the elective courses are offered in the last two semesters.

Standard 4.2: Courses in the major areas of study must be structured to ensure effective interaction between student, faculty and teaching assistants.

Every course offered in the program carry assignments, class presentations and practical work. Students have close interaction with their teachers for the guidance related to preparing their assignments and presentations. Each instructor adopts his/her way to interact with his students either in the class or during the office hours.

Standard 4.3: Guidance on how to complete the program must be available to all students and access to academic advising must be available to make course decisions and careers choices.

An orientation session is conducted for the newly admitted students. In the orientation session, the students are guided about the program mission, objectives, outcomes, curriculum design & organization, assessment-methodology and attendance criteria. Program mission, objectives, outcomes and curriculum design is also available to all the students in prospectus and on university website. Students are provided with objectives and outcomes of each course by the concerned teacher in start of every semester. Faculty members are available during working hours for any guidance needed by the students. The students also have free access to the office of HoD and Registrar Academics for any consultation regarding selection of courses. Department of English encourages students to interact with the faculty members for any advice/guidance.

The office of the controller of examinations maintains a record of all the registered students in manner which contains the Name, Father's Name, Date of Birth, Permanent address, CNIC No. of the candidate, DMC of SSC and intermediate Examination, details of any other examination and result of every University Examination.

Academic Progress of Students:

Monitoring of student progress is evaluated by tests, assignments, class presentation, mid semester exam, and final semester exam at the end of the semester.

Internal Evaluation:

Attendance	05 %
Assignments/Presentations	15 %
Mid Semester Exam	30 %
Final Semester Exam	50 %

Standard 5.3: The process of recruiting and retaining highly qualified faculty members must be in place and clearly documented and processes and procedures for faculty evaluation also.

Recruitment of the faculty members is done through open merit by inviting the applications through newspapers. Written screening test is conducted for short listing of lectures only. The candidates are required to appear before the selection board for interview. The names of selected candidates are recommended to syndicate for approval. After the approval, the registrar issues the offer letters for the appointment. Faculty members are appointed in accordance with the policy approved by provincial HED and HEC, Pakistan.

Faculty's Recruitment, Training, and Evaluation

Faculty	Policy	Process
Recruitment	As per HED's and HEC's guidelines	Through selection board (for permanent seats) and approval by the University Syndicate. Through HoD & VC (on contract basis).

Evaluation	As per HEC's guidelines	Evaluation by students through Directorate of Quality Assurance (DQA) at the end of Fall Semester.
Promotion	As per HEC's criteria for faculty promotion and service statute of the University.	Through selection board and approval by the University's Syndicate.

The performance of the faculty members is monitored by the Head of the department, and it is evaluated annually through PER (Performance Evaluation Report). Teacher's evaluation by the students which is conducted by Directorate of Quality Assurance also helps the HoD to evaluate the faculty members of the department.

Standard 5.4: The process and procedures used to ensure that teaching and delivery of course material to the students emphasize active learning and that course learning outcome is met. The process must be periodically evaluated to ensure that it is meeting the objectives.

Process to Ensure Teaching and Delivery of Course Material:

- Time table is strictly followed by all faculty members. The HoD of the department frequently gets feedback from the students during the semester.
- Students are shown their marked papers or their mistakes are communicated to the students after every exam.
- Award lists, along with answer sheets of mid semester, and final semester exam are submitted in the office of controller of examination and photocopies of award lists are kept by the faculty members.
- In order to ensure that the effectiveness of teaching, a course evaluation and teachers evaluation survey is conducted by the university's DQA. The findings are communicated to the concerned faculty members. After completion of SAR, Assessment Team meeting is called to assess the process and make implementation plan for the department.

Teachers Evaluation by the Students, Semester Fall 2024:

The following teachers have taught different courses in the semester being evaluated i.e. Semester Fall, 2023. The courses included Fundamental/Major, Elective, Compulsory, and General Courses. Apart from teachers of the Department of English, teachers from other departments of the university, and on visiting basis have also taught various courses:

S.No	Name	Designation	Department

CRITERION 7

INSTITUTIONAL FACILITIES

Institutional facilities including library, computer lab, and faculty offices need improvement to support the objectives of the overall programs of the University. In the Department of English, there are three vast and well-furnished class rooms which can easily accommodate up to sixty students. There is total five offices in the department, among which one is given to the clerical staff, and four are used by the faculty members.

Standard 7.1: The institution must have the infrastructure to support new trends such as eLearning.

Following facilities are available in the department:

Internet Facility:

Limited internet facility is available for the students and faculty members.

Canteen:

A small canteen is available for both male and female students within the campus.

Medical Facility:

University has no Basic Health Unit or Dispensary to facilitate the students, faculty members and supporting staff. However, University provides ambulance which is used to take students to the District Headquarter Hospital in case of emergency.

Faculty Offices:

Inadequate faculty's offices facility is available for the faculty members. Apart from Hod's office, there are three offices in the department which are used by ten faculty members.

Common Room for Female Students:

A small common room is available shared by for all the female students of the university. No separate common room is available for female students of the department.

Standard 7.2: The library must possess an up-to-date technical collection relevant to the Program and must be adequately staffed with professional personnel.

The Department of English has established its own Departmental Library which caters the needs of students in obtaining different books. However, it is not adequately staffed with professional personnel. In fact, there is no librarian/attendant/assistant in the mini library of the department.

Standard 7.3: Classroom must be adequately equipped and offices must be adequate to enable faculty to carry out their responsibilities.

Multimedia have been installed in all the class rooms of the Department of English. However, the plan to install speakers in the class rooms has not been fulfilled yet. The department lacks individual faculty's offices. Mostly shared offices and staff rooms are available.

CRITERION 8

INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT

The university administration is trying to provide all the possible facilities to the departments and has been struggling hard for the up gradation of departments and establishing new departments.

Standard 8.1: There must be sufficient support and financial resources to attract and retain high quality faculty and provide the means for them to maintain competence as teachers and scholars.

In order to groom the faculty members, the university offers various trainings, workshops and seminars from time to time. The University is also trying to attract highly qualified faculty. All the financial matters of the department are managed by office of the Treasurer and office of the Registrar with no involvement of the department. Faculty's salary is as per government rules which is handsome enough to attract and retain highly qualified faculty members.

Standard 8.2: There must be an adequate number of high quality graduate students, research assistants and Ph. D students.

There are no research assistants in the department of English. Currently there are two Ph. Ds in the department.

Standard 8.3: Financial resources must be provided to acquire and maintain Library holdings, laboratories and computing facilities.

All the financial matters of the department are managed by the office of the Treasurer and office of the Registrar with no involvement of the department. The department requests the office of Registrar for required books and other computing facilities which are purchased through Purchase Committee of the University.
