NOTIFICATION

Khushal Khan Khattak University, Karak expresses its deepest sorrow over the recent cloudburst that struck multiple districts, including Dir Lower, Buner, Bajaur, and Swat, on August 15, 2025, resulting in the tragic loss of numerous lives and severe hardship for many families. In light of this catastrophe, the University encourages a spirit of solidarity and compassion for the affected communities among its employees.

Employees can support relief efforts in the following ways:

1. Contributing one day's salary: Staff members who wish to extend financial support are invited to voluntarily contribute the equivalent of one day's salary.
2. Volunteering time: Employees can volunteer for relief efforts or help in organizing donation drives.
3. Donating supplies: Contributing essential items like food, water, clothing, or medical supplies to affected families.
4. Raising awareness: Spreading information about the disaster and relief efforts to encourage broader community support.
5. Collaborating with local organizations: Partnering with local NGOs or community groups already involved in relief work.

Employees willing to participate in these initiatives may record their consent either by responding in the designated WhatsApp group established for this initiative or by submitting their approval directly to the Office of the Registrar.

Let us respond to this humanitarian crisis with generosity and stand with those who are enduring immense hardship.
